

AiDa | Academy of Imagination & Dramatic Arts, established in 2015, is mission and community driven arts education focused on fostering imagination, creativity, self-discovery and expression, through diverse programs for all ages, inspiring confidence, empathy, emotional intelligence, public speaking tools and strategies to become a more effective communicator and collaborator to lift the human spirit!

Our multi-award-winning Drama Nature Art Summer Camp and classes empower your child’s future through the magic of play and education, to ignite imagination, boost confidence, and lay the foundation for a lifetime of success! Lifetime friends are made here and our Artist/Youth Mentor Leader Initiatives unite arts appreciation and excellence while having FUN!

“At AiDa, possibilities are only limited to one’s imagination! I have always believed in the power of dreams, and now I’m honored to guide others in achieving theirs one confident step at a time.”-Kaime Sherman, Founder, President AiDa Arts Initiative

All classes, workshops and camps are instructed by Kaime, award-winning Artist, Author, Mentor, (acting, public speaking, creativity and certified Life) Coach. A graduate of The American Academy of Dramatic Arts, adjudicator 25+ yrs for New York & Los Angeles campuses, Actor’s Society Gold Member, ACTRA Member working professionally for decades in theatre, television and film. She is recipient of YWCA Women of Distinction | Arts & Culture, 9X Shortlisted Nominee City of Hamilton Arts Awards as Creator, Arts Innovator, Community Partner. Beyond kids programming, she creates/facilitates teen and adult acting IMPROV, Art of the Pitch, Public Speaking, Creativity and Leadership workshops at McMaster University, Mohawk College Continuing Education and Hamilton Business Centre supporting entrepreneurs. She believes that access to the arts is a right not a privilege.

CODE OF CONDUCT and EXPECTATIONS for our students, volunteers and families;

AiDa is about creative expression, self-discovery, kindness, respect for self, others, nature and our community.

As we grow, AiDa continues to create an environment that is fun, welcoming, supportive, and safe for all members of our community to express themselves without fear of judgement or discrimination. This effort requires cooperation from every member of community. We therefore continue to expect everyone attending to:

1. Regular attendance of classes, workshops, camps is expected. Please notify by text or email if student is to be absent or late.
2. Students are expected to be punctual so it doesn't delay our programming.
3. Students should come to class mentally and physically prepared and fit for class. Any medical problem or previous injury, which might cause difficulty in fulfilling the objectives of the class, should be reported to Kaime, before class begins to ensure the comfort of the student.
4. Students should bring refillable water bottle to each class to hydrate and any needed materials for class, workshops and camps.
5. Exhibit respect for others, by speaking courteously to instructor, Mentor Leaders and to others and show respect for their property. This includes all AiDa arts, crafts, costumes, props and equipment.

We have zero tolerance for any unsafe behavior, including bullying, inappropriate language, or physical behavior that compromises the physical safety, disruption of instruction, programming of any member or our AiDa community. We reserve the right to expel any student who violates the Code of Conduct or who participates in any activity that might reflect unfavorably on AiDa's vision and mission. Fees will not be refunded if a student is expelled.

Please respect other's identities and backgrounds, including their pronouns and names. We refrain from anyone making comments about anyone's gender identity, health status, economic status, religion, background or beliefs.

AiDa | Academy of Imagination & Dramatic Arts, reserves the right, at the sole discretion of its Director or instructors, to immediately remove a student from a class, workshop, or camp if their behavior is deemed unsafe, violent, threatening, or significantly disruptive to the learning environment or the safety of others.

To report an absence or late arrive please text 905.975.2313 or email:
